Online Learning

SELF-PACED STUDY

Education is no longer a static model, but fluid and almost organic in nature, and being able to define goals, purposes and assessment is ongoing. When you study on-line, you achieve the same qualification as students studying in the classroom at a college or university. But unlike courses delivered the way, on-line courses allow you to study from anywhere, and choose when you want to fit study into your week. On-line courses are delivered entirely on-line to deliver courses of the highest quality to people who would otherwise have limited access to higher education. This is an exciting and challenging time in education..

As an on-line student, you'll be able to log into an on-line Learning Management System.(LMS)

Through the on-line LMS portal you will receive all your study materials and instructions, and submit your assessments. When you study a course that is 100% on-line, there is no travel involved and you will never have to visit a campus. You'll complete and submit all of your coursework on-line
